STOP IT!

WHEN DO WE WANT IT!

WELL WEDNESDAY

WOULD BE NICE

IF CONVENIENT!

OH MY GOD! THEY ARE LIKE ANIMALS!

BOO!!!!

DOWN WITH SOMETHING!

MY UNDERWEAR!

OH MY GOD!

HURRAH!

I'M NAKED!

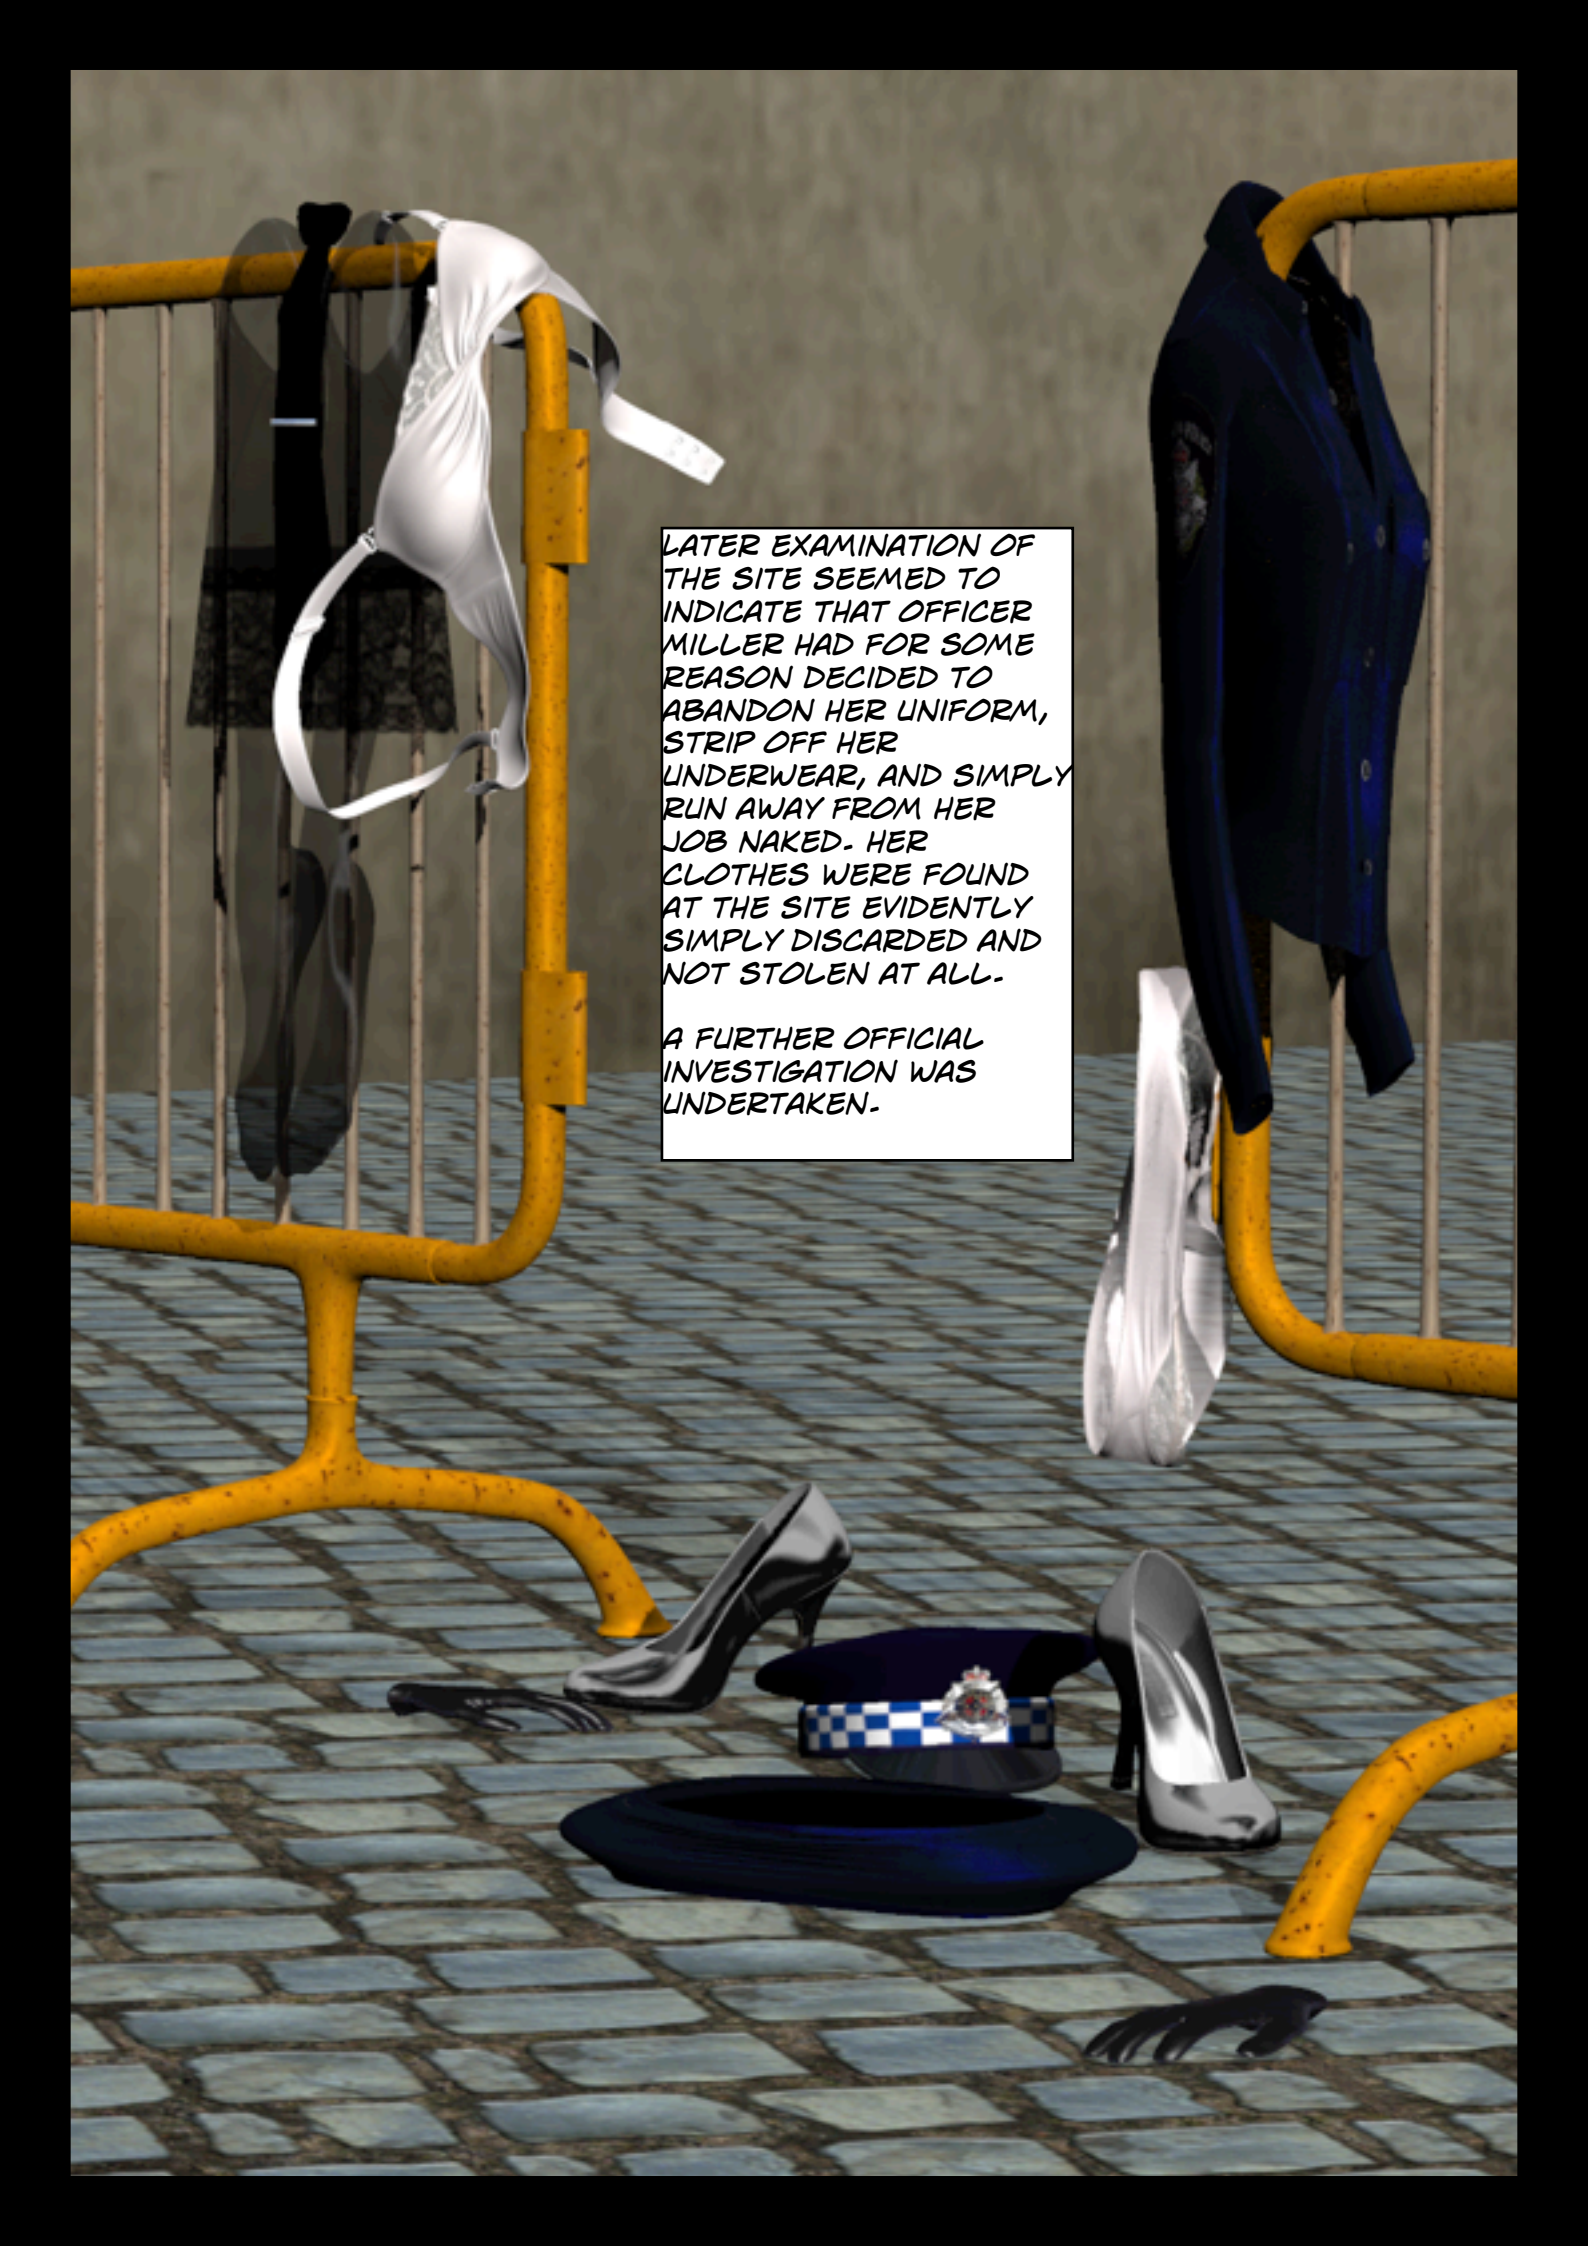

PHWOOR!

I'VE GOT TO GET BACK TO THE STATION!

LOVELY!

NICE BUNS!

LATER EXAMINATION OF THE SITE SEEMED TO INDICATE THAT OFFICER MILLER HAD FOR SOME REASON DECIDED TO ABANDON HER UNIFORM, STRIP OFF HER UNDERWEAR, AND SIMPLY RUN AWAY FROM HER JOB NAKED. HER CLOTHES WERE FOUND AT THE SITE EVIDENTLY SIMPLY DISCARDED AND NOT STOLEN AT ALL.

A FURTHER OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION WAS UNDERTAKEN.

To whom it may concern.

Investigation of incident involving Officer Miller.

This case was most unusual in involving what at first glance seemed to be a Victoria Police Officer removing her clothing and running away from her post naked.

The claim she made on arriving at the station that she had been forcibly stripped did not match the evidence on the ground where her uniform and intimate apparel were discovered intact and without loss apparently abandoned.

However having extensively studied CCTV footage of the incident several dozen times we can confirm that the officer was indeed subjected to a forced stopping incident carried out by a very clever thief or thieves unknown who carefully removed articles of her uniform at times without her own cognisance.

We hereby exonerate Officer Miller and confirm she can have her clothes back now as they are no longer required as evidence.
